

Acknowledgements

The Office of Emergency and Remedial Response acknowledges and thanks the individuals who contributed to the development of this plan. Each recommendation results from discussions and analysis by each workgroup, the coordination of the Leadership Integration Team, and the guidance of the State and Tribal Superfund Management Council. Please see the membership list in Appendix E for the names of the people who contributed to this plan.

Notice

This document does not represent final agency action, but is intended solely as guidance. It is not intended, nor can it be relied upon, to create any rights enforceable by any party in litigation with the United States. EPA officials may decide to follow the policies discussed in this document, or to act at variance with such policies, based on an analysis of specific site circumstances. The Agency also reserves the right to change this document at any time without public notice.

How to Obtain Documents

To Obtain Documents:

EPA employees can obtain additional copies of this guidance, or copies of documents referenced in this guidance, by calling the Superfund Document Center at 703-603-9232, or by sending an e-mail request to superfund.documentcenter@epamail.gov. Non-EPA employees can obtain these documents by contacting the National Technical Information Service at 703-487-4650. This document is also available on the Internet at <http://www.epa.gov/superfund>.